Headteacher News :

Dear Parents,

Assemblies:

This week our assemblies have covered the following:

Monday - Mrs Rosamond led a singing assembly.

Thursday - Mrs Rosamond delivered an assembly on the 100 anniversary of Winnie - the - Pooh. The explored the characters we know and love and the author A.A Milne. The assembly linked well to our work around reading for pleasure and followed on from my assembly last week.

Friday - Today my assembly revisited reading for pleasure from last week and we talked about who had tried reading something new over the past week. I was delighted to hear children had graphic novels, mystery books, funny books all recommended by other children last week.

We went on to talk about influencers including the famous 'Mr Beast' who is behind the '1 billion Acts of Kindness' Campaign. We talked about the influencers we have in our lives and how they support and help us in positive ways. We also explored how we can also have negative influencers both online and around us and how we all have the ability to make our own choices.

Governor News

We had a full governing body meeting yesterday and governors welcomed our new parent governor Mr Joel Hinchliffe. Governors discussed progress towards the school improvement priorities for this academic year and upcoming monitoring involving our school improvement advisor Julie Mills. We will update you in due course but are excited to show her what we have been doing in school. We also talked about recent changes to the OFSTED framework and how they inspect schools.
